Take the Ten Toes Express to the Central West End - Westminster Place

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: .75 mile or more

Westminster Place is one of the elegant private streets of the CWE, begun in 1892. Most of these beautifully crafted homes have been extensively updated and restored. Take a stroll down Westminster to admire the craftsmanship and unique details of each and every house.

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to the Central West End (CWE) Station.
- Exit MetroLink at the CWE Station and walk east to the bus Transfer Center.
- Board the MetroBus # 18 to travel northbound on Taylor.
- Exit the bus after you cross Pershing. Watch for the stone gates on your right to enter Westminster Place.

(You may wish to first look left across Taylor to 2nd Presbyterian's Tiffany windows.)

- Turn right into Westminster Place, crossing Newstead half-way.
- Continue to Boyle, and then return to Taylor.

For an Added Challenge:

- Increase your mileage to 1.4 miles by boarding MetroBus #10 Gravois-Lindell.
- Exit the bus at Lindell & Newstead near the "New" Cathedral.
- Cross Lindell and walk north on Newstead to Westminster.
- Enter Westminster Place at Newstead. Turn left to reach the gates at Taylor, then turn back on the other side of the street.
- Cross Newstead and continue on Westminster to reach the gates at Boyle, and then turn back on the other side of the street.
- Turn left on Newstead to return to the bus-stop on Lindell.
