

Step Out to the Gateway Mall on the Ten Toe Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: 1 mile or 2.25 miles

The Gateway Mall is not in fact a shopping center but instead green space through the middle of downtown, ideal for pedestrian activities. Many St. Louis parades and festivals take place in the Gateway Mall. Come out on a sunny day and stop at the vendors in the mall or at one of the delis or restaurants along the perimeter of the mall. Access is easy from the 8th & Pine MetroLink Station.

Directions:

- Take MetroLink from the 8th Street & Pine MetroLink Station.
- Exit MetroLink, turn left on 8th Street Walk one block south on 8th St.
- Cross the street at Chestnut and turn left onto Chestnut.
- Follow Chestnut, keeping the green space on your right and head east toward the Arch.
- At the end of Kiener Plaza turn right on Broadway.
- Follow Broadway and then take a right on Market. As you walk west on Market toward Union Station you will see Busch Stadium on your left.
- Turn right on 11th Street to pass between the Civil Courts building and Richard Serra's "Twain" sculpture.
- Turn right on Chestnut to return to 8th Street for a 1 mile trip.

To Increase Your Steps:

- Turn left on Chestnut to continue past the Civil Courts.
- Follow Chestnut, past Tucker, and keep walking to 20th Street.
- Turn left on 20th Street.
- Take a left at Market to pass the fountain in front of Union Station.
- Follow Market back to 8th Street and turn left.
- Take 8th Street to return to the MetroLink Station for an added 1.25 miles.

OR:

- Return to MetroLink at Union Station.

