

Take the Ten Toes Express to Laclede's Landing

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE .50 mile

Laclede's Landing is a remnant of the pre-skyscraper industrial city preserved as an entertainment district on the riverfront, named for the founder of St. Louis. Look for the many made in St. Louis cast-iron architectural features. This walk is short but rugged, with sloping sidewalks and pavements of uneven stone and brick.

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to the Laclede's Landing Station.
- Exit MetroLink at the station. Walk to the west end of the platform to take the stairs or elevator down to 2nd Street.
- Turn right on 2nd Street. The lobby of the former Witte Hardware Building, now a bank, contains an exhibit describing that family business.
- Walk north two blocks on 2nd St., then left on Laclede's Landing Boulevard for one block. The M.L. King Bridge is overhead on your right.
- Turn left on 3rd St., and then left on Morgan Street.
- Walk down Morgan Street to 1st Street and turn right. Metro Headquarters is on your right and a view of the Eads Bridge is on your left. (Public restrooms are available at the snack bars on the lower level of 1st Street & Lucas.)
- Return to MetroLink on 1st Street, stairs only, or turn the corner to 2nd Street for the elevator.
