

Take the Limits Walk to Delmar Loop on the Ten Toe Express

TOTAL WALK DISTANCE: 1 mile

Limit Walk is the pedestrian extension of Limit Avenue which marks the boundary between University City and the City of St Louis. It bisects the historic Parkview neighborhood just east of Skinker. Before MetroLink and Millbrook Ave were busy thoroughfares it connected to Washington University.

There is no direct access to Delmar Boulevard (gates are locked).

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to Skinker Station.
- Make your way to the northwest corner of Skinker and Millbrook (opposite Kayak's).
- Walk north one block to Pershing and turn left between the stone columns.
- Walk as far as the stop sign for motorists and turn right.
- Continue walking for five blocks toward the gates at Delmar.
- Retrace your steps to Skinker Station.

To Increase Your Steps:

- Before you reach the gates at Delmar turn right on Washington Boulevard.
- Follow Washington to Skinker and turn right on Skinker to return to MetroLink.

OR:

- Before you reach the gates at Delmar turn left on Washington. Follow Washington to Westgate Avenue, then turn right on Center Avenue to exit the neighborhood.
- Turn right on Melville to reach the Delmar Loop.

Limits Walk to Delmar Loop

