

Ten Toes Express to Market in the Loop

TOTAL DISTANCE: 1.5 miles

Market in the Loop is a daytime gathering place in the Delmar Loop. The Market features an indoor Food Court and an outdoor produce market (Thurs. – Sat.). There are many sights to see on market day. This walk begins from the Big Bend Station and travels Delmar eastward.

Directions:

- Take MetroLink to the Big Bend Station.
- Exit MetroLink. Cross Big Bend to University Drive which is parallel to MetroLink. Washington University is on your right.
- Walk one block east on University Drive, then turn left on Trinity.
- Follow Trinity four blocks north to COCA (Center of Contemporary Arts), a community arts organization in a former synagogue.
- Continue north then bear right on Trinity past another former synagogue, formerly Community Music School, now part of Washington University.
- Cross Delmar at the U. City Library and walk east on Delmar two blocks to the Market.
- Return to the Big Bend MetroLink Station.

Remember there are lots of stops along the way including the library, restaurants, coffee houses and shops.

